STC Foundation Board Welcomes New Members

SAVANNAH – Savannah Technical College Foundation proudly announces the appointment of three new members to its Board of Directors -- Brynn Grant, director of marketing and public relations, Savannah Economic Development Authority (SEDA); Mark Hall, principal, North Point Real Estate; and, Sally Nielsen, partner in the Savannah office of Hunter Maclean Exley and Dunn P.C. The STC Foundation is responsible for private fundraising to support the college, its programs and its activities and is in the middle of a $5 million capital campaign.

Brynn Grant has led SEDA's marketing efforts for more than five years, garnering national and international recognition for her work. Previously, her efforts were instrumental in the establishment of the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame golf and garden attraction in Augusta and in the expansion of the Savannah Music Festival. She served as VP for Communications for EM Management and as a successful marketing consultant. Grant is a graduate of the University of Georgia.

Mark Hall has extensive experience developing large-scale master planned residential and golf communities along the Southeast coast with 18 years of experience in land development, horizontal/vertical construction and master planning. He previously operated Southbridge Development Company, after serving as general manager of Hall Development Company from 1995-2000. Hall is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and is an active member of the Savannah Area Chamber of Commerce and the Georgia Chamber of Commerce.

Sally Nielsen specializes in employee benefits and executive compensation. She advises public, private, government and tax-exempt entities on benefits issues related to the design, adoption, communication and administration of benefits plans and related funding vehicles. She received her B.A. degree, magna cum laude, from Albion

College and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. She received her J.D. degree, with distinction, from Emory University School of Law where she was Executive Articles Editor of the Emory Law Journal and a member of the Order of the Coif. Nielsen is a member of the Southern Employee Benefits Conference, an interdisciplinary educational organization for employee benefit professionals, the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Georgia, and the District of Columbia Bar Association.
