Jules Paderewski Joins STC Foundation Board

SAVANNAH – Dentist and real estate developer Jules Paderewski has joined the Savannah Technical College Foundation Board of Directors. The STC Foundation is responsible for private fundraising to support the college, its programs and its activities and is in the middle of a $5 million capital campaign.

Paderewski, a graduate of the University of Georgia and the University of Alabama-School of Dentistry, ran a successful dental practice from 1966 until 2000. Now, he practices part-time and serves as a dental consultant to Brasseler USA, manufacturer of dental/medical rotary and surgical instruments in addition to an expanding real estate development career. He is currently involved in the development of a 54-acre mixed use project on the Savannah Riverfront.

He owns Tidewater Marina and was the founding director and chairman of the Board of Ameribank, now BB&T in addition to other leadership positions in banking. Paderewski has a long history of community involvement including board service for Congregation Mickve Israel, the Hope School for the Hearing Impaired, the American Cancer Society and the Historic Savannah Foundation among others.

A full list of the Savannah Technical College Foundation Board of Directors is attached.
