

SAVANNAH TECHNICAL COLLEGE

OBJECTION TO RELEASE OF STUDENT INFORMATION

Federal laws (FERPA and Solomon) provides for the release of student information under certain circumstances unless a student files a written objection. If you wish to file such an objection, please complete this form and sign it where indicated. Your signature indicates that you understand that, even if you file a written objection, the institution may in certain circumstances be legally required to provide student information to third parties. For example, if the institution received a court order or subpoena to produce your student records, the institution would be legally obligated to respond.
