COMPETITIVE SELECTION PROCESS – Surgical Technology

All items below must be completed by the published competitive selection deadline.

- Successfully complete all required GPA calculation courses for selection.
- Submit a Competitive Admissions Health Science Programs Application online at <https://www.savannahtech.edu/competitive-admissions-health-science-programs/> . This link is also available on the program webpage during the application period. The $25.00 fee for applying to a competitive health science program must be paid at the cashier office to be considered for selection to the program. This fee is required for each application cycle in which an application is submitted.

The number of seats available for each program cohort are limited based on clinical slots and/or program accrediting agency requirements. Therefore, the number of students accepted can vary with each application cycle. Only students who meet the minimum eligibility requirements as outlined will be considered for selection.

Prior to the start of the program, students must complete the Health Care Science Technical Certificate of Credit (TCC) ** with Surgical Technology specialization.
